

Supplementary Figure 1. Brain MR images at 10 years (A) and 7 years (B) prior to the diagnosis of pantothenate kinase-associated neurodegeneration showing bilateral symmetric globus pallidus signal abnormalities consistent with the “eye-of-the-tiger” sign.