

Supplementary Figure 1. Relationship between the number of people with Parkinson's disease (PwP) who received device-aided therapies per neurologist in 2021 and average annual income in Poland. The relationship between these two variables was strong ($r = 0.799$; $p < 0.001$).