

Supplementary Figure 1. EMG recordings of left masseter muscle activity via surface electrodes. A: The left masseter muscle demonstrated irregular bursts of multiple motor unit potentials during spasm. B: The left masseter did not show silent periods when the chin was tapped using a reflex hammer during unloading of the bite force during prolonged spasms. EMG, electromyography.